

IC SPICY

IC SPICY Brand Voice Guide

How the brand should sound everywhere.

For labels, social, website copy, decks, and founder scripts.

Farm-grown heat. Chef-built flavor. Blockchain-backed provenance.

Prepared May 2026 - Draft marketing material; legal review required before public token claims.

Voice Attributes

Grounded, fiery, culinary, premium, direct, transparent, and a little rebellious.

What To Say

Farm-grown heat. Chef-built flavor. Rare Florida peppers. Real provenance. Luxury pantry fire. Built from soil, not a boardroom.

What To Avoid

Moon language, guaranteed financial upside, empty Web3 jargon, macho pain challenges, fake scarcity, and vague wellness claims.

Audience Adjustments

For grocery buyers: margin, velocity, shopper fit. For chefs: flavor, origin, technique. For X: founder conviction and build-in-public. For local customers: plants, taste, community, and trust.

Signature Lines

Rare. Hot. Alive. Farm-grown heat. Chef-built flavor. From tray to table. From soil to shelf.
